B GOOD AND BAD HABITS

Listening
Aim: Listen to everyday problems and their solutions

Vocabulary

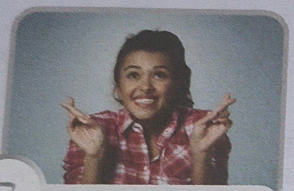

1 Listen and number. Track 4-03

3 anxious

4 careless

6 confident

1 cheerful

2 hopeful

5 lazy

1 nervous

7 habit

2 Listen and answer the questions with the best vocabulary words. Answers will vary. Track 4-04

1. How does Tim feel when he answers the phone?
   he feel confuse
2. How does Tim feel when he hears the problem?
   He family couples
3. What word best describes Tim's sister, Nicky?
   Crazy
4. What does Tim think of Nicky?
   He thin to crazy guys
5. What does Nicky say about herself?
   She felb hopeful

Focus

3 Talk with a partner.

I have a habit of talking a lot when I'm nervous.

Why don't you try breathing slowly instead?

I have a habit of being lazy when I'm tired.

Why don't you try going to bed earlier?

I have a habit of biting my nails when I feel anxious.

Why don't you try chewing gum instead?

Grammar

4 Look at the table.

Simple Present Tense for Habits and General Truths
The simple present can be used to describe people's habits and routines as well general truths (things that are always true).
Dad walks to work every day. (habit)
The Eiffel Tower is in Paris. (general truth)

5 Look at the sentences and guess if they are habits (H) or general truths (GT). Circle the answers.

NOTE
In the simple present, add -s to verbs with he, she, and it.

1. Mom listens to music when she's stressed. H GT
2. There are thirty days in April. H GT
3. Greek salad has cucumbers and feta cheese. H GT
4. George eats Caesar salad every Tuesday. H GT
5. You need a passport when you take an international flight. H GT