6 Look at the table.

Relative Clauses with when
We can use when to introduce a relative clause. When is a relative adverb which means "at the time that." It joins two actions. If the when-clause comes before the main clause, we use a comma.
Examples
Emily claps her hands when she feels cheerful.	When she feels cheerful, Emily claps her hands.
Peter bites his nails when he feels anxious.	When he feels anxious, Peter bites his nails.

7 Rewrite the statements so the when-clause comes first.

1. I feel nervous when I have a big test coming up. When I have a big test
2. Shirley feels lazy when she has a day off. When she has a day off
3. Mrs. Peters always feels cheerful when she's done teaching. When she's done teaching

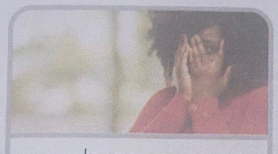

Listen Up

8 Listen and circle the answers. Track 4-05

1. How does Sarah feel about running?

a. hopeful

b. nervous

2. When does Wendy feel less anxious?

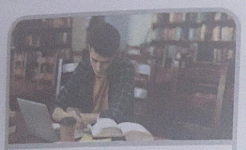

a. when she finishes the test

b. when she sings cheerful songs

3. What is Matt's habit?

a. studying at the library

b. studying at home

4. Why did his father fall down the stairs?

a. he was cleaning the stairs

b. he was careless

Challenge

9 Listen and answer the questions. Track 4-06

1. Why does Sarah think waking up early is a good habit?
   a. It will help her run faster.
   b. Her coach told her it is the best time to run.
   c. She feels less nervous in the morning.
   d. It's good for practicing the high jump.
2. How does Sarah think she'll do in the high jump?
   a. She's hopeful she'll do well.
   b. She's cheerful because she'll do well.
   c. She's nervous she won't do well.
   d. She's anxious because she won't develop good habits.
3. Which two things is Sarah confident about?
   a. the high jump and long-distance running
   b. developing better habits and the high jump
   c. waking up early and developing better habits
   d. feeling hopeful and feeling nervous
4. Circle true or false or doesn't say.
   a. Mike thinks Sarah is lazy. true false doesn't say
   b. Sarah is a careless person. true false doesn't say
   c. Sarah's coach knows about good running habits. true false doesn't say